

Stephen W. Porges, PhD: A moderated discussion of Stephen Porges' work, including a discussion of the clinical application of Polyvagal Theory (video in 2 parts)

Joan Borysenko, PhD: Psychotherapy and Mind–Body Medicine: From Immunology to Neuroscience

David Wallin, PhD: The Impact of Who We Are on What We Do: Attachment and Enactment in Psychotherapy

Diane Poole Heller, PhD (interviewed by Tami Simon): Co–Mindfulness, Compassion, and the Courage to Connect: Cutting Edge Corrective Experiences that Restore Secure Attachment Capacities

Bill O'Hanlon, MS: Inclusive Therapy: A Gentle Way to Dissolve Resistance, Reduce Ambivalence to Change, and Increase Therapy Results

Esther Perel: The Double Flame: Reconciling Intimacy and Sexuality

Ronald D. Siegel, PsyD: Tailoring Mindfulness: Fitting the Practice to the Person

Dan Siegel: An Interpersonal Neurobiology Approach to Trauma and Its Treatment